

Learning Japanese Guidance

Our Japanese Learning Subjects are divided into 3 sub-categories, such as 'Learning Japanese Subjects', 'Learning in Japanese Subjects' and 'Communicating in Japanese Subjects'.

'Learning Japanese' Subjects

✚ Subjects are...

Social Skills in Japanese: Oral Communication / Writing

JLPT-N1 / Kanji and Vocabulary / Lecture on Japanese Grammar in English / Lecture on Japanese Grammar in Chinese

Reading Comprehension: JLPT-N2 / JLPT-N3 / JLPT-N4

Listening Comprehension: JLPT-N2 / JLPT-N3 / JLPT-N4

Composition: JLPT-N2 / JLPT-N3 / JLPT-N4

✚ Who can join the lessons?

- Undergraduate Degree Seeking Students and Exchange Students from Partner Universities.
- Graduate students are allowed to join if there is a vacancy.
- Students' family, research students, faculty researchers and foreign academic staff are not allowed to join any of these subjects.

✚ Any limit in numbers of the lessons?

- Maximum 4 Subjects per term.
- Students MUST participate in all lessons for each subject.
- Students are allowed to take any levels of lessons they prefer.

✚ Any conditions to take Learning Japanese Subjects?

- 'Social Skills in Japanese' are ONLY open to the students who have already passed JLPT-N2 or N1.

✚ Any placement test?

- No placement test needed.
- Make sure you will attend the very first lesson of the subject you would like to take.

✚ Any other information?

- We offer Asahimachi Japanese Lessons for Medical students.
- 4 lessons per week. Tuesday and Thursday are mainly for semi-beginners, and Wednesday and Friday are for beginners.

'Learning in Japanese' Subjects

✚ Subjects in this category are...

✚ What to learn?

- These subjects are NOT designed for learning Japanese but for learning in Japanese.
- Students learn current Japan from a lot of different view points.

✚ What language do you use in lesson?

- Lecturers use rather easy and simple Japanese.

‘Communicating in Japanese’ Subjects

Subjects in this category are...

Active Learning (Lectures will be held in both English and Japanese)

Global Communication

What is Japan (Lectures will be mainly held in English.)

Some of the subjects are held in English but foreign students will have greater opportunity to meet and talk with Japanese students in Japanese.

✚ English in class?

- No. You learn in Japanese.
- There are many opportunities for students to use Japanese during the lessons.

✚ Japanese students in class?

- Yes. Those subjects are for both Japanese and Foreign students.

‘Intensive Japanese Course’

✚ Invitation only

- Strictly for Students with Government Scholarship.
- We might invite some other students when there is some vacancy.