Contents

Notes

・ Although you can watch YouTube with your Niigata University Educational Support System (学務情報システム, Gakumu Joho System) ID, please only watch videos that are sent to you by your teachers.

・ You are not able to upload videos using your Niigata university system login details. If you are found to be uploading videos using your Niigata University ID, your account will be suspended, and you will not be able to continue taking classes. Be extra vigilant in this regard.

・ Do not post any information from the video including URL and content online. For example, social networks.
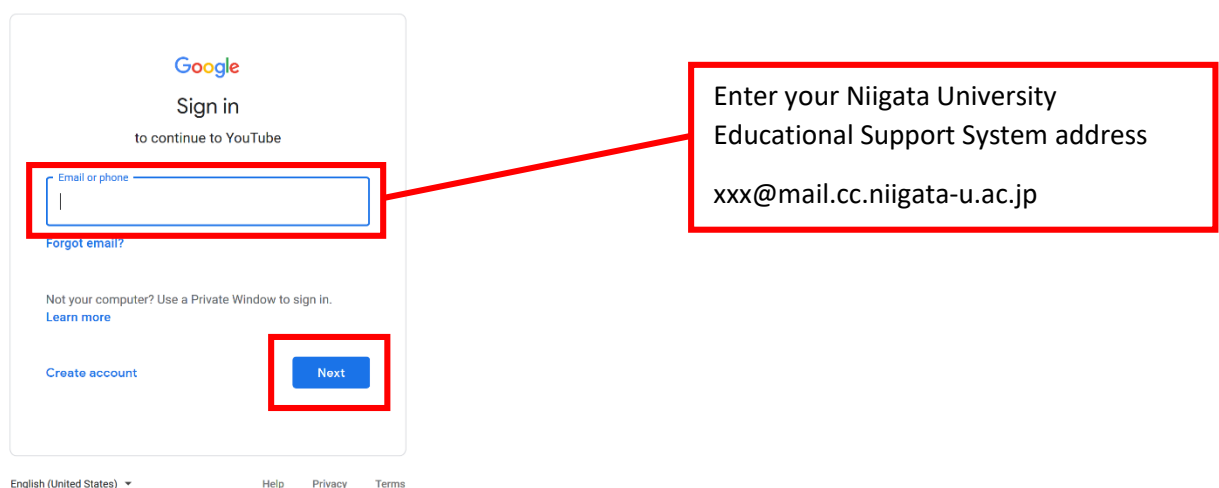

Getting Started

For online classes, teachers will send out the video URL through the University Web system. Class videos are uploaded as private videos on YouTube and are only available to authorized students.

How to View Private Videos

1. Click on the URL sent to you via the Niigata University Educational Support System.

2. You are unable to view video's that are private. If viewing is allowed, click "SIGN IN" to authorize viewing.

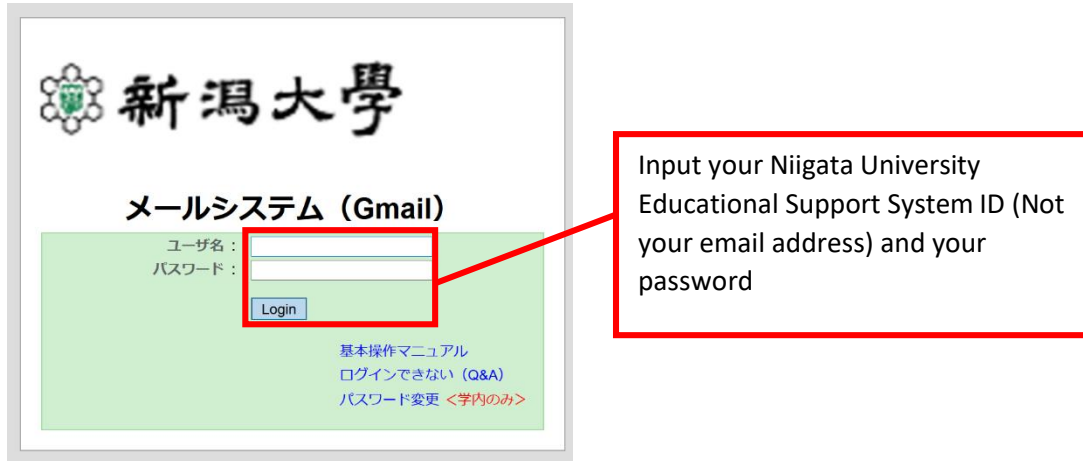

Click Login to proceed with user authentication

In the new window where it asks for your google account (mail address), insert you mail address from the Niigata University Educational Support System.

Enter your Niigata University Educational Support System address

xxx@mail.cc.niigata-u.ac.jp

3. You will be redirected to the Niigata University Educational Support System (Gmail) authentication page. Log in again.

User ID: Niigata University Educational Support System ID

Password: This is the same password as your Niigata University Educational Support System account

Input your Niigata University Educational Support System ID (Not your email address) and your password

4. After user authentication is completed, you will be able to view private lesson videos.

Please log out after viewing the video.

Private videos can only be watched with the permission of the teacher who posted the video.

Not all videos are visible to all students.

Support

If you need help with viewing YouTube videos use the question board dedicated to Zoom on the Centre for Academic Information Service (Johokiban Centre) web site. Please log in with your Academic Information System account.

https://elnsec.cais.niigata-u.ac.jp/course/view.php?id=32