

Session D – Humanities - Detailed information

The 3rd Japan-Russia Student Forum on 12-13 September, 2021, Hokkaido University, online

SLOGAN: "Crossing All Boundaries and Sharing Your Ideas"

1. Session D : Humanities

2. Subtitle:

"New frontiers in Russian and Japanese studies"

3. Summary:

The session organizing team recruits undergraduate or graduate students in the fields of Russian studies, Japanese studies, or Japan-Russia inter-relationship, who can deliver their presentations in English, even though the event will be actually conducted in Japanese and Russian. Applicants are requested to provide their Japanese and Russian language proficiency for reference. After presentations, there will be a discussion session on the future development of Japanese and Russian studies.

4. Detailed information:

Session D will be held by the following groups.

- (1) Language, Education
- (2) Literature, History
- (3) International relations

【Schedule】

• September 12th :

One of the representatives deliver a presentation at first, and the group instructors explain the contents and schedule of the next day.

• September 13th :

Two other representatives will conduct presentations in front of the whole Session D members, and then the members will be divided into three groups.

In each group, each student will give a presentation of his/her own research about 5 minutes for each and exchange opinions with others. In the end of the Session, all members will gather again and summarize what they discussed as the Session D group.
