Dr. USHIKI Tatsuo
President
Niigata University
Japan

Dear President USHIKI Tatsuo,

LETTER OF CONGRATULATIONS ON 75TH ANNIVERSARY

I learnt with pleasure that Niigata University will be celebrating its 75th birthday in 2024. On behalf of all the staff and students of Hubei University, I would like to extend our sincere congratulations to you and your colleagues on this important milestone for your university.

Over the past 75 years, Niigata University, carrying on your goal of serving the development of your country, has made pioneering explorations with constant progress and outstanding achievements. Your dedicated teachers and professors have worked hard and educated thousands of students. Many of them become professionals in all walks of professional life, which has made great contribution to the development of your country. By receiving excellent education and training skills from your university, students from Japan as well as overseas countries have applied their skills and knowledge to facilitate intercommunication across linguistic and cultural barriers. Such efforts of yours have helped the international community to promote a global culture of knowledge, within which ideas and philosophies can meet, interact and develop peacefully and productively.
