

Congratulatory Message from
Assoc. Prof. Dr. Dexanourath SENEDUANGDETH,
Acting President of National University of Laos

On behalf of the National University of Laos, I am delighted to extend my sincere congratulations to Niigata University for your 75th anniversary. The National University of Laos is privilege to have worked with Niigata University since 2017. Our two universities have cooperated successfully in international exchange programs in the past seven years. We would like to thank you for all your support and cooperation with the National University of Laos.

Niigata University has had a long-standing achievement in higher education and reached a new milestone in its 75th anniversary. We look forward to broadening and strengthening our partnership with Niigata University for the years to come.
