

東吳大學

Soochow University

April 16, 2024

Dear President Ushiki,

On behalf of Soochow University, I extend our heartfelt congratulations on the occasion of Niigata University's 75th anniversary.

Over the past 75 years, Niigata University has achieved remarkable success in academic research, teaching, and international exchange, earning widespread acclaim and respect both domestically and internationally. Your dedication to nurturing talent, driving academic innovation, and contributing to societal development will always be remembered and admired.

The 75th anniversary of Niigata University is not only a celebration of past achievements but also a vision for future development. We look forward to Niigata University's continued success and its ongoing contributions to the global education community.

At this special moment, we wish the anniversary celebrations at Niigata University great success, and we hope that our friendship and cooperation will continue to strengthen and deepen.

Once again, congratulations to Niigata University on its 75th anniversary. May the university's future be even more prosperous and vibrant!

Sincerely,

Prof. Chyan-Long Jan

President

Soochow University