

6 May 2024

Professor USHIKI Tatsuo M.D. PhD
President
Niigata University
Japan

Dear Professor Ushiki

Greetings from Western Sydney University.

On behalf of the University, I would like to extend our congratulations on your 75th anniversary as a higher education institution. This is a remarkable achievement and one which you should be justly proud of.

Seventy-five years of academic excellence, innovation, and community building is a remarkable milestone that reflects the dedication and hard work of generations of faculty, staff, students, alumni, and supporters. In this time, Niigata University has demonstrated ongoing commitment to the pursuit of learning and the advancement of society.

I am confident that the innovation, resilience, and excellence that has defined Niigata University will continue to guide it towards an even brighter future.

Western Sydney University is proud of its partnership with Niigata University and we look forward to deepening this friendship through future collaborations.

Once again, congratulations on the 75th anniversary of Niigata University.

Yours sincerely

Professor Clare Pollock
Interim Vice-Chancellor and President