About this booklet:

This booklet “Class Time Schedule” shows the time schedule and instructors of G-code subjects※ with subject codes (class number) starting with 22*G* and subjects offered in non-Japanese languages. G-code subjects listed in this booklet are those offered mainly for international students. For detailed information of subjects in this booklet, including general education (G-code) and those offered by each faculty for specialty education, please refer to the syllabi on Niigata University Student Web System.

■ Subject codes---WHAT are subject codes (class number)?

First three digits indicate when subjects are offered.

3rd-term subjects: "223G*"

4th-term subjects: "224G*"

Semester subjects (3rd and 4th terms): "220G*"

■ Room numbers---WHERE do I go to attend my class?

There are in-person (face-to-face) classes and online classes. Information regarding how each subject is held (in-person or online), as well as room numbers for in-person subjects, are not included in this booklet, but will be shown in the syllabus of each subject.

Make sure to check “講義室／Classroom” information on each syllabus before the start of each term to find out how your subjects will be conducted. If you are unsure, ask the instructor in charge by email.

When subjects are held online, “講義室／Classroom” in their syllabus are left blank. When held in-person, it shows the room number. For information necessary for subjects held online such as ZOOM/YouTube URL, check announcements posted for each registered subjects via Course > 授業ポトフォーリオ(class portfolio) on the Student Web System.

◇ Period 1

* U/G : Undergraduate & Graduate , U : Undergraduate , G : Graduate

Course Number	Course Title	Credit	Instructor	Field	Language for Instruction	For Undergraduate or Graduate	Information
223G6511	Basic Geology	2	SATISH Kumar	Science	English	U/G	Coupled with Thursday's class
		This course is designed to teach the fundamentals of geology. Lecture is grouped in to three modules: First module comprises of the formation of Earth as a planet in the space. The lectures include information about the interior of Earth and how we can understand about the structure of the Earth and other planets. Second module consists of materials in the surface of the Earth. Here I focus to teach about minerals and rocks. Also different processes going on in the surface of the Earth such as plate tectonics which causes earthquakes and volcanoes.

◇ Period 3

220H4062	Anglo-American Culture B	2	Gregory Hadley	Humanities	English	U	3rd grader or above	3-4 term
		This is an English lecture course that studies aspects of American Society and Cultures. Students are required to take notes during the lectures and participate in group discussions. In many instances, students will be asked to relate their own culture and worldview to the issues presented in class.

◇ Period 4

220E6077	Anime History	2	KIM Joon Yang	Economics	English	U	3rd grader or above	3-4 term Limited to faculty of Economic Sciences
		Conducted in English alone, this lecture course provides an opportunity to understand not only the history of Japanese "anime" but also international views on the medium and culture of animation from Japan. Students will work with English terms and concepts, along with Romanized Japanese ones, relevant to anime's history.

◇ Period 5

220E6074	Introduction to the History of Japanese Studies	2	HOPF Anja	Economics	English	U	3rd grader or above	3-4 term Students enrolled in the Faculty of Economic Sciences take priority.
		This lecture deals with the history of Japanese studies often also known as Japanology, mainly in Europe, North America and Australia. We start with the accounts of the first Western travellers to Japan in the 16th century and their observations in Japan e. g. the German doctors Engelbert Kaempfer (1651 - 1716) und Phillip Franz von Siebold (1796 -1866), who laid the foundation of the discipline in Europe. We then follow the formation and diversification of the discipline inside the wider field of Orientalistic, Area or Regional Studies throughout the 20th century and how it presents itself today. We further look at the different straits and approaches regarding academic schools of thinking, methodology and their most important scholars.

◇Period 3

220H4062	Anglo-American Culture B	2	Gregory Hadley	Humanities	English	U	3rd grader or above
		This is an English lecture course that studies aspects of American Society and Cultures. Students are required to take notes during the lectures and participate in group discussions. In many instances, students will be asked to relate their own culture and worldview to the issues presented in class.

◇Period 4

220E6077	Anime History	2	KIM Joon Yang	Economics	English	U	3rd grader or above
		Conducted in English alone, this lecture course provides an opportunity to understand not only the history of Japanese "anime" but also international views on the medium and culture of animation from Japan. Students will work with English terms and concepts, along with Romanized Japanese ones, relevant to anime's history.

◇Period 5

220E6074	Introduction to the History of Japanese Studies	2	HOPF Anja	Economics	English	U	3rd grader or above
		This lecture deals with the history of Japanese studies often also known as Japanology, mainly in Europe, North America and Australia. We start with the accounts of the first Western travellers to Japan in the 16th century and their observations in Japan e. g. the German doctors Engelbert Kaempfer (1651 - 1716) und Phillip Franz von Siebold (1796 -1866), who laid the foundation of the discipline in Europe. We then follow the formation and diversification of the discipline inside the wider field of Orientalistic, Area or Regional Studies throughout the 20th century and how it presents itself today. We further look at the different straits and approaches regarding academic schools of thinking, methodology and their most important scholars.

		Be able to observe China from a comprehensive perspective considering its neighboring countries as well as its power in international relations through the study of the political history of modern China (1949-). The remark & criticism on China should be based on fair and objective views, e.g. (1) Why are "Made in China" products or foods perceived to be of poor quality or be unsafe? (Think of Chinese population scale & management capability.) (2) Why does Chinese government have such a hardline attitude and standpoint on the Senkaku (Diaoyu) Islands, and give nobody the leeway to change it? (3) What is Tibetan problem? (Take Japan one hundred years ago into consideration.) (4) China's one-child policy & population problem (The future of India & the United Nations' position) (5) Why does China take an uncompromising stance on Taiwan issue? (What are Chinese people's views on Taiwan issue?) (6) Does China's diplomacy damage international order & energy balance?
